

Top award to Moya Dodd

Women on Boards congratulates Moya Dodd as the 'Top 100 Woman of Influence' in the AFR awards announced today. A former Matilda's vice-captain, board member of Football Federation Australia, the International Council for the Arbitration of Sport, and the first female vice president of The Asian Football Confederation, Moya is one of only three women to have served on the FIFA executive committee, leading the womeninFIFA campaign for gender equality during the recent FIFA reform process. Outside of sport, Moya practises at King & Wood Mallesons. Congratulations to all other category winners including many WOB members...

WOB solution for PPL

Earlier this week Women's Agenda published a proposal WOB took to the Federal Government in 2015 on Paid Parental Leave. WOB believes it's a solution that's fairer across the long term and will ultimately provide more mothers with the 26 weeks paid leave that will help them bond with their babies and return to work. It also aims to give fathers and partners access to more paid leave, AND

World Economic Forum's Global Gender Gap Index

You might ask how Australia's faired in the 2016 Global Gender Gap Index report.

Australia's progress towards parity between men and women is anything but forward. The recent report highlights that in fact Australia's performance in this matter or lack thereof has relegated us to 46th placing! In one year we have slipped 10 positions from 36. It would appear that whilst gender balance and equity remain a hot topic and the implementation of tactics to revert this scenario continues, it has does nothing to halt the continual decline from our 15th place ranking back in 2006!
